N/A

Additional information: Doso Doyabi means "White Mountain." Two elders from the Ely Shoshone Tribe provided this information (their mother was one of the few survivors of the Spring Valley Massacre. The name is verified in the University of Utah's Online database. There are variants of both words - each Shoshone band has a slightly different dialect. Doso (not Dosa) is used by the Duckwater Tribe, and Doyabi is used by several different bands.
